THE LYNX-EYED DETECTIVE.

His Place in History and His Present Social Position.

(Oakland Radiator.)

Nearly all the great detectives that ever lived were originally scoundrels in some capacity, and entered the ranks of the thief catchers to avoid being caught themselves. Vidocq was a professional thief, a galley slave and a detective. Fanchon was a common blackmailer, a stool pigeon, and a detective. Bluebeard was a burglar, a pickpocket, and a detective. There is no necessity of running through the list, or even mentioning the small fry blackmailers and licensed thieves of the modern "stool pigeon" brigade. They all pan out the same, and the majority spring from the same source upon the principle that it takes a thief to catch a thief. But the worst iniquity that is allowed to exist outside of the professional thief and thug is the private detective, the divorce sneak, the garrotter who throttles private character for the purpose of extorting blackmail, the anonymous letter writer who seeks to create discord in families by exciting jealousy in the minds of husband and wife, the wretch who feeds like a human hyena upon the follies or foibles of his fellow man. The evil has reached such a pass that no man's purse is safe from the professional blackmailer, and no man's character, no matter how pure it may be, is beyond the slimy touch of the slander dealer. If these men have any principle or intellect above the low cunning of a monkey, gained through association with cunning outlaws, it would perhaps not be so bad; but as a general thing the average detective, and especially the private detective in his normal state, possesses no more intellect than principle. He performs nearly all his work by means of "stool pigeons," low creatures who are utterly devoid of principle. The "stool pigeon," the detective's right bow and main stay, as an informer who commits the moral crime for which Judas Iscariot hung himself, a thousand times during his lifetime, and the detective, whether private or public, who uses him, is even worse than his "stool." To punish or prevent crime it is often necessary to use secret information given by "pals" of the perpetrators, but it has become the general custom among detectives of the present day to keep a paid gang of professional "stool pigeons" and "shadows" who "work up" cases on men who can pay handsomely to prevent an exposure. The system as pursued at present is justly subject to the sneers and contempt of all honest men, and the time is close at hand when the vermin clinging to the skirts of the police departments and hanging on the purses of society will be stamped out by legislative enactment.

A Remarkable Family.

Appropos of the battle of New Orleans, it is not, perhaps, generally known that there are three survivors of that famous day living in Kentucky—notable men all. One is Elder Thomas P. Dudley, a man of eighty-seven, who has been in the pulp for nearly sixty years and is in full possession of all his faculties, and bids fair to continue active in his Master's work for some years to come. He was present at the massacre of the River Raisin, and was at New Orleans with Jackson. So was General William Orlando Butler, of Carrollton, who will be eighty-eight in April. He was wounded at the River Raisin massacre, but survived to be paroled and to march by way of Niagara and New York to Pittsburgh, thence going home on a flat-boat to regain his strength and fight at Pensacola and New Orleans with "Old Hickory." He was brevetted major for his gallantry on the field, where, according to Jackson, "he displayed heroic chivalry and calmness of judgment." He afterwards sat in Congress, and, going to the war in Mexico, was voted a sword for his gallantry at Monterrey. He succeeded Scott in command in Mexico, and was the Vice Presidential candidate with Cass on the Democratic ticket in 1848. Another survivor of New Orleans is General Butler's elder brother, Major Thomas L. Butler, who will be ninety in April. He was one of Jackson's aides, and had the command of the city during the battle below New Orleans. The major has just recovered from an attack of illness. With these two brothers lives a third, Richard, who is eighty-seven. They were all sons of Percival Butler, the first adjutant-general of Kentucky. A sister, Mrs. James Pryor, of Covington, is still living, we believe, at the age of eighty-one; another, Mrs. Ewing, of Louisville, died two years ago, aged seventy-three. They came of the famous Irish fighting stock eulogized by Washington when he toasted "The Butlers and their five sons!" and of whom Lafayette wrote: "When I wanted a thing well done I ordered a Butler to do it." Another of the race, Richard, was a major-general, and died with St. Clair, who refused to take his advice on the eve of the fatal 4th of November, 1791. "I have some good wine, General; let us eat, drink and be merry," said Butler, who knew more of Indian warfare than his chief, "for to-morrow we die." The daughter of the dashing soldier, Mrs. Meason, of Uniontown, Pa., died only last month at the age of nine-six.

The scarcity of diamonds, gold and silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value. Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Ang. Kaiser's celebrated German Pelvic and Kidney Pills, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom, or put out a prairie fire with a tear. For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Rheumatic Affections it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your druggists, Ochsner & Shoemaker, for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Ang. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75-cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents. 5000

RENO AND SURPRISE VALLEY.—Calderwood & Patterson's stages will leave Reno on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 3 o'clock A. M., and reach Bidwell, Surprise Valley, at 6 o'clock on the following days. Returning, will leave Willow Ranch at 7 A. M. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, arriving in Reno at 9 P. M. on the following days. Fare, $30 each way. Freight on baggage over 30 pounds, 5 cents per pound. Of 60 at Hammond & Wilson's stable, opposite Railroad depot. JOHN WILSON, Agent. 503-17

A CONUNDRUM.—"You are a mule, sir," said an irate man to his son. "And you are my father, sir," was the quick reply. "And it is no use to deny the relationship." The old gentleman attempted to assume a severe look, but a faint smile stole over his face, and to reward the wit of his son, went to S. N. Davidson's Jewelry Store and selected one of the finest Watches and Chains for him as a Christmas present. They both were made happy, as the son returned the compliment again. 515-17

HARD THINGS TO DO.—There are three things that no man can keep—a point on a pencil, a pointed joke and an appointment with a dentist. There are three things no woman can do—cross before a horse, hurry for a horse car and pass S. N. Davidson's jewelry window without calling and examining some of his fine holiday presents on exhibition, which he offers for sale cheaper than ever. 515-17

SIMMOND'S

NABOB WHISKEY.

Consumers are referred to the following extract from the report of an eminent Public Analyst:

This is a pure barley and wheat spirit, remarkable in fragrance, which imparts a delicate aroma, at the same time greatly increasing its value as a digestive stimulant. The solid residue contains a large amount of tannin, derived from storing in oak casks, which imparts to fine old "Nabob" one of its valuable individual qualities. The amount of the residue proves the whisky to be free from the excessive coloring and sweetening so generally used in adulterating. In fact, in two words, it is the PUREST WHISKY, and will not only supply a public want, now that whiskies are so generally adulterated, but will be of the greatest value to the physician in those numerous cases where pure whiskies are the most useful of all medicines. "GENERAL INDIAN WAR."

We notice that the newspapers are engaged in their regular annual Indian insurrection prophecies. Many of them are not aware that they are publishing nothing more or less than a suttler store advertisement. The war department every summer distributes troops as it thinks they will be needed and makes the necessary arrangements to feed them and their horses. By November all is settled for the winter and soon after the voice of the bull-frog is heard in the land predicting an Indian war in a very short time. As soon as the grass grows if not before. Often the telegraph is adroitly made use of to spread reports of hostile bands roving about the country, driving in cattle men, firing at stage drivers, &c. which stories soon become complete in detail and go for solid facts, no matter how vague a rumor they may have started on. Often these tactics bring reinforcements to frontier posts and then the suttler gets in his work. The camp is victualled for one company perhaps, and here is another that must be fed. The patriot sells his flour and beef, hay and barley for three prices, Uncle Sam pays the bill and all is serene. This practice is universally prevalent in Indian countries. We have known cavalry companies repeatedly to chase phantom Indians for days. We have seen men tear into town with their hair flying and clothes torn off, wearing that large band of redskins had chased them to their very doors. We have known often of newspaper reporters innocently telegraphing war news that existed only in some traders brain. There is every reason why settlers should encourage a war, only excepting miners. The mines cannot be worked without great danger and expense unless in times of peace, but the rancher suffers no loss. If he is robbed by Indians the government is bound to pay for every hoof stolen and for all the hay, beef or horses he sells the troops he gets the highest prices. The suggestion which is made to every mind would be that Indian agents, settlers and all were in a gigantic conspiracy to rob both the Indians and the people. If the Indian will stand it, all right. If he goes to war we get a good price for our produce if he steals it, and a good market for it if the army eats it. If he don't fight we keep the troops moving and eating all the same. All's fish that comes to our nets. Such an idea is horrifying and almost beyond belief. It is more ghoul-like than stealing Stewart's bones. The men who could go into a wholesale business like that must belong to another class of civilization from that which we see around us. A programme which even implies a bargain such as: We will starve these wretches and make money from their supplies. If they fight we will get a chance to sell our produce. In either case we make money. Can money making go lower? It is the spirit which animated Troy dye and Anderson.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

We hope that the legislature will follow the GAZETTE's advice and pass a law taxing dogs. A good sum could thus be raised, which might go to the school fund. Almost any man would be willing to pay a dollar a year for the inestimable privilege of keeping a dog. The useless poverty-stricken curs who couldn't raise a dollar for a tax would be well out of the way, for it is these canine tramps which disturb the slumbers of people and set a bad example of idleness to naturally well behaved dogs. Give us the dog tax or no longer mock us by mentioning the name of liberty.

The Gold Hill News hasn't entered upon a new volume, or get a new dress of type but we take the opportunity for all that to say that within the past two months it has immensely improved, and is now as full of life and sass as anyone could wish. A city paper like the GAZETTE can afford to do the graceful in this way occasionally and the News is at liberty to be happy in the knowledge that the GAZETTE approves of it.

The Latest Advertisers, the destinies of which are provided over by one of the most remarkable men of the century, says that the GAZETTE is an excellent paper with the single exception that it is "too sarcastic in its references to other papers and editors." This care for the feelings of his brother editors on the part of the Advertiser is praiseworthy, for as for himself the GAZETTE has repeatedly said, and still maintains that he eats more and pays less for it than any other man on the coast.

The Elko Independent apologetically says that it was not aware before we called its attention to the fact that the editor of the GAZETTE was the discoverer of the velocity with which heat and electricity travel. Live and learn. The surprise of the Independent will probably be even greater in the future when a few more of the remarkable discoveries of the editor of this extraordinary journal are given to the world. Edison isn't fit to turn the grindstone for him.

The manner in which the Regan resolution was judged by some of our legislative employees would have done honor to the noblest carpet-bag that ever robbed a southern state.—Evreka Sentinel.

Jim Anderson's opinion on this matter is that of an expert and we're glad to find that his opinion agrees with our own perfectly.

The charter of the Louisiana lottery has been repealed by a vote in the legislature of 63 to 20. It is well. There has recently been some vague talk of getting up a state lottery in Nevada. We sincerely hope we shall not be disgraced by any such attempt.

The Gold Hill News objects to a brutal metropolitan paper like the GAZETTE, casting ridicule on its weekly mining reports. Upon reflection, we think the News is right. The reports are funny enough without any outside assistance.

Another extensive fire destroying over two million dollars worth of property occurred in Worth street, New York, on the 17th. The principal store for silks, woolens, clothing and other dry goods were destroyed, but happily no casualties to firemen or citizens occurred.

Great Shrinkage in Values.

(Chicago News.)
The shrinkage of manufacturing property in New England is unprecedented. A paper mill built and run by the Valley Falls paper company at New Boston, N. H., was sold at auction a few days since, under foreclosure, for $5000; it originally cost $50,000. It was built in 1867, is well appointed in all respects, and has a fair water-power. The Littleton, N. H., woolen mill, which has been idle for three or four years, was recently sold for $7000 cash. The purchase includes the mill, machinery, water privileges, boarding-house, two acres of land at mill, and five acres of woodland about two miles from the village. The property was bought in 1862 for $92,000, and used for the manufacture of woolen blankets until 1870.

Nor is the shrinkage confined to New England. Two furnaces and other buildings of the Mingo Iron Works, at Steubenville, O., with 297 acres of land, were sold last week, and bought in by the first-mortgage bondholders for $27,000; the second mortgage was $75,000; other debts $185,000.

The buildings of the New York Steam Sugar Refinery, covering 24,000 square feet of land in fee and four leasehold lots, each 23x70 feet, on South, Water, Cherry and Montgomery streets, Brooklyn, together with machinery, were sold by auction, on Tuesday last, for $45,250. This was the only bid made. The property originally cost $300,000; the improvements afterward made bring it up to $500,000.

Abbott's Sentence.

(Sunday Call.)

Judge Blake, of the municipal criminal court, yesterday sentenced George W. Abbott, the young broker who absconded with $40,000 in currency intrusted to him by the Anglo-Californian bank to purchase silver with, and was captured in Mexico, to three years imprisonment in the house of correction. Mr. Chamberlain, of the Young Men's Christian Association, testified to Abbott's exemplary character and conduct before his departure. Ex-Governor Low, manager of the bank, testified that Abbott came to him from China with excellent recommendations. He had always proved faithful up to the day he absconded, and had returned of his own accord and enabled the bank to recover $38,000 out of the $40,000 taken, and as far as he was concerned, he would like to see as light a penalty as possible inflicted.

"Wipe It Yourself."

(Carson Tribune)

At the inaugural supper table the other evening, a gentleman who owns a very large nose, in fact a trunk—a proboscis—and who was sitting near an open door, was much tormented by his vis-a-vis, who kept pointing to his own nose as if in the act of applying a handkerchief to the same. Out of patience, our friend inquired why his opposite neighbor was making such a fool of himself. "Wipe that drop off the end of your nose," was the answer. Neary roared out, so that all could hear: "Wipe it yourself, damn you! You are nearer to the end of it than I am." And it is said that at the table were men enough to laugh.

Wrestling Match.

DENVER, Jan. 18.—A large audience gathered at Whitney's Opera House to-night to witness a Graco-Roman wrestling match between J. H. McLaughlin, of this city, and the French athlete, Andre Christol. The first round lasted three minutes, and ended by Christol going down. As he struck the floor he attempted to form a "bridge," but failed, McLaughlin breaking it and Christol's collar-bone also. Being disabled and unable to continue the match, it was decided in favor of McLaughlin.

Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to Arden Jones greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Jemima Jones as plaintiff in the District Court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, (to-wit: on the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant. Plaintiff alleges: That plaintiff and defendant were married at Mono County, California, on or about July 29th, A. D. 1875, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; that on or about September 29th, A. D. 1875, the defendant, willfully deserted and abandoned plaintiff, and ever since have continued and do now continue to desert, abandon and live apart from the plaintiff against her will, wish or consent; that for more than a year preceding the commencement of this action, the defendant, has failed and neglected to now do and neglect to provide for the plaintiff the common necessities of life, which neglect is and was not the result of poverty on your part which you could not have avoided by ordinary industry; that there are no children living of the issue of said marriage and no common property. Plaintiff prays to be restored to her maiden name and for costs, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof I, P. B. COMSTOCK, Clerk of the District Court of the Second Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe County, do hereby certify the date of said Court, this 16th day of December, A. D. 1897.

P. B. COMSTOCK, Clerk of the District Court of the Second Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe County. By S. A. MANN, Deputy. Jan-14-1898
